CALL FOR

Full-time and part-time professors from Universidad Autónoma de Ciudad Juárez, higher education institutions in the state of Chihuahua, Texas, and New Mexico interested in participating as reviewers and evaluators of the research papers submitted by students participating in the 12th International Young Researchers' Conference in the State of Chihuahua, to be held on October 13 and 14, 2026.

The goal is for professors to review the research projects of students and recent graduates who register for the conference, as well as to evaluate the oral presentations during the event.

1 AREAS OF KNOWLEDGE

Research projects must be classified according to the following areas of knowledge:

- |                                             |                                             |
|---------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------|
| I. Physics, Mathematics, and Earth Sciences | V. Social Sciences                          |
| II. Biology and Chemistry                   | VI. Biotechnology and Agricultural Sciences |
| III. Medicine and Health Sciences           | VII. Engineering                            |
| IV. Humanities and Behavioral Sciences      | VIII. Arts                                  |

2 WAYS FOR PROFESSORS TO PARTICIPATE

- Reviewer: Participates in the preliminary evaluation to select the research projects to be presented at the event.
- Evaluator: Assesses students' presentations at the event.

Note: UACJ professors may participate in both modalities depending on the amount of research projects registered. External professors may only participate as reviewers.

APPLICATION GUIDELINES

3 PROFESSORS PARTICIPATION

- Full-time and part-time professors from Universidad Autónoma de Ciudad Juárez, higher education institutions in the state of Chihuahua, Texas, and New Mexico, with at least two years of experience.
- Must hold at least a master's degree or equivalent.
- Availability to carry out the activities assigned as a reviewer and/or evaluator within the timeframes specified in the call for applications.
- To participate as a reviewer or evaluator of doctoral candidates' papers, you must hold a doctoral degree.
- In the case of external evaluators, they must be nominated by means of a letter or official document issued by their home institution, indicating their full name, academic degree, proficiency in Spanish (for external professors from Texas and New Mexico), area of knowledge, and the level at which they wish to participate. The document may be sent to the following email address: coop\_intercambio@uacj.mx.
- If you are an advisor to presenters participating in the conference, you may not serve as a reviewer in the same area of knowledge and academic level.
- In the evaluators category, there are 6 positions available for each area of knowledge and each level.

Note: Professors' registration will be verified with the corresponding department.

4 PROFESSORS SELECTION

Selection will be based on the application guidelines and the number of professors who apply for the call, with priority given to the first complete applications that meet the requirements, depending on the number of research projects registered.
